- Camper is involved in school and extracurricular activities.
- Camper is respectful of others and able to follow the guidelines of positive group dynamics.
- Camper is interested in acquiring greater self-confidence, know how, and leadership skills.
- Camper is committed to being a positive contributing group member and shows a genuine interest in participating, understanding that his or her commitment means full participation in their camp experience.
- Camper has a supportive family unit and is behind the child's interest in NHDC.

Camper Scholarship Program Guidelines

New Horizons Day Camp strives to make camp available to all campers, regardless of the means. We consider number of children in the household and extenuating circumstances such as family illness, family members in college, and so on.

Through the Camper Scholarship program, NHDC strives to provide a camp experience of differing social, cultural, and economic groups than might normally be seen in NHDC's camper population.

NHDC prohibits discrimination against its camper applicants based on race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity and religion.
